

Anales de Historia del Arte

ISSN: 0214-6452

Volumen Extraordinario

2008

Contents

	Pages
Introduction Mercedes MOLINA IBÁÑEZ, III. dean of the faculty of Geografía e Historia (UCM)	13-15
Funeral Oration Antonio BONET CORREA	17-18
In praise of Julián Gállego Francisco CALVO SERRALLER	19-24
Julián Gállego and Aragón Wifredo RINCÓN	25-38
Approach to the bibliographic corpus of Julián Gállego	39-56
Architecture in Manuscript Ollumination”, an approach from Castilian late Middle Ages M ^a . Victoria CHICO PICAZA	57-71
Some Medieval sources for Renaissance and Baroque Art Ángela FRANCO MATA	73-87
On the social condition of Aragonese Moorish masons Gonzalo M. BORRÁS GUALIS	89-102
Urban magnificence and Fiesta Real; Salamanca 1543. Symbolic elements in relation to the figur of the Prince Ángela MADRUGA REAL	103-120
The city in Golden Age spanish literature Alicia CÁMARA MUÑOZ	121-133
Envy and creative consciousness in the Siglo de Oro Javier PORTÚS PÉREZ	135-149
The paintbrush and the pen: on portraits, landscapes and stil lifes in Golden Age literature Soledad ARREDONDO	151-169
Santiago Morán el Viejo (1571-1626), Chamber painting José Manuel CRUZ VALDOVINOS	171-187
Thoughts & precisions on Van Dyck’s portraiture in the country of Velázquez Matías DÍAZ PADRÓN	189-212

Contents

The image of the ambition: The Royal Henhouse in the high place of the Prado Concepción LOPEZOSA APARICIO	213-258
Painting and printing in the begining of the Portuguese's rupture. Velázquez and the image of Philip IV's monarchy Diego SUÁREZ QUEVEDO	229-244
Mucha alma en carne viva -like Díaz del Valle would say- José María RIELLO VELASCO	245-256
Diego Velázquez and the oblique painting of Juan Caramuel Fernando MARÍAS FRANCO	257-277
Alonso Cano and the altarpiece of San Francisco in the church of Santiago of Madrid Félix DÍAZ MORENO	279-289
Harrach's spanish painting collection Javier Ignacio MARTÍNEZ DEL BARRIO	291-306
Poems and images. Cult and Marian devotions in the church of the Society of Jesús in Zacatecas, México Miguel Ángel CASTILLO OREJA/ Luis J. GORDO PELÁEZ	307-339
Iconography of don Pedro Quevedo y Quintano, bishop of Orense (1776-1818) and Regent of Spain (1810) Ismael GUTIÉRREZ PASTOR	341-354
Absences/ presences: sings of presence in Goya's portraits Isadora ROSE-DE VIEJO	355-364
The Spanish Contitution of 1812 in Goya Juan Francisco ESTEBAN LORENTE	365-374
The Cid as bullfighter: from literature to art José María DÍEZ BORQUE	375-387
The Procesión de disciplinantes in the Academis de Bellas Artes de San Fernando. Goya and plebeian piety Alfonso RODRÍGUEZ G. DE CEBALLOS	389-405
Goya's grotesque drawins Valeriano BOZAL	407-426
The dissolution of the classic in the relativism of taste Simón MARCHÁN FIZ	427-446
José de Madrazo and his Criticism of El Greco Mercedes ÁGUEDA VILLAR	447-454
Cervantes and "Don Quixote" in the XIX Century National Fine Arts Exhibitions Jesús GUTIÉRREZ BURÓN	455-474

Contents

Taste and liberty. Art in the novel, la hija de un jornalero, by Ayguals de Izco Carlos REYERO	475-488
Constructing the liberal city: Madrid, 1859 and the proposals for new neighborhoods Carlos SAMBRICIO	489-503
Spanish painters in the 'Carnegie Prize', 1896-1970 Teresa POSADA KUBISSA	505-512
Paul Poiret and Art Déco Lourdes CERRILLO RUBIO	513-525
Picasso and history. The case of Las Meninas Dolores Jiménez-Blanco	527-534
Ángel Ferrant in the Spanish civil war José ÁLVAREZ LOPERA	535-555
Minimal angles Carmen GONZÁLEZ CASTRO y Eduardo QUESADA DORADOR	557-569