BRAGA 2010: PLURICENTRIC LANGUAGES :
LANGUAGE VARIATION AND SOCIO-COGNITIVE DIMENSIONS

Catholic University of Portugal, Braga

September 15-17, 2010

<http://www.plurilang2010.org>

Deadline for abstract submission May 31, 2010

The conference Pluricentric languages: language variation and socio-cognitive dimensions aims to explore the sociocultural, conceptual and structural dimensions of variation and change within pluricentric languages, with specific emphasis on the relationship between national varieties. It brings together the Cognitive Linguistics paradigm, Sociolinguistics tradition and other usage-based, cognitively and socially oriented approaches to language variation and change.

Organizing committee

Augusto Soares da Silva (Chair), Amadeu Torres, Joana Jacinto, Miguel Gonçalves, Pedro Pulquerio, Jose Antonio Alves.

Plenary speakers

Peter Auer (University of Freiburg), Enrique Bernardez (Complutense University of Madrid), Ataliba Teixeira de Castilho (University of Sao Paulo), Dirk Geeraerts (University of Leuven), Gitte Kristiansen (Complutense University of Madrid), Georges Ludi (University of Basel), Edgar W. Schneider (University of Regensburg)

Call for papers

Within this socio-cognitive and interdisciplinary context of research into linguistic pluricentricity and other expressions of language-internal variation, papers are invited on the following themes and topics:

1. Language-internal and cross-national variation, culture and cognition
2. Structural patterns of national variation and corpus-based approaches
3. Cognitive cultural models of national language variation
