

Papers on History of Law

ISSN: 1133-7613

Vol. 12

2005

Summary

Pages

STUDIES

Historical truth, Philological truth

Diego Catalán Menéndez-Pidal

11-21

The French antecedents of a public international law in the middle of the 16th century: The « Civil and Public Philosophy » of Jean d'Arrérac

Gérard D. Guyon

23-42

The roots of the "new" Political History: Diplomacy and Legal History

Armando Luís de Carvalho Homen

43-56

Autonomy of the will and arras (deposit) of sale. Roman juridical sources and its regulation in medieval legal texts

Carmen López-Rendo Rodríguez

57-98

The ius commune as a legal antecedent of the European Union

Remedios Morán Martín

99-123

Felipe V, the Spanish nobility and the Consejo of Castile. The Legal and historical Explanation of the consultation given by the Royal Council of Castile, attributed to Macanaz

Luis María García-Badell Arias

125-149

The daily life in the Motril of the Modern Times through the Writs of Good Government

Pedro Andrés Porras Arboledas

151-177

Satire against the predilection of the Roman law: a decimononical critic to a legal order still not dismissed

Faustino Martínez Martínez

179-228

Toledo in Charles V Cortes: questions of general interest for the Kingdom

Pilar Esteves Santamaría

229-283

MISCELLANY

The crime of robbery in Hispanic Muslim penal law

Loubna El Ouazzani Chahdi

305-311

	Pages
The Reception of French Civil Law and the Code civil of 1804 in Germany Thomas Gergen	285-304

DOCUMENTS

Justice and the exercise of power: infamy and «crimes of lust» in the legal culture of medieval Castile Jesús Ángel Solórzano Telechea	313-353
Creditor's meetings at Provincial Historical Archives of Burgos (16th-19th centuries) Pedro Andrés Porras Arboledas	355-372