3. You will receive a confirmation email with a link on which you must click to activate your account. Afterwards, you will already be able to access the web as a registered user. Then, you must go to the top right corner of the screen and click on the “control panel” of your user.

4. In the control panel, you must click on the “new submission” option.

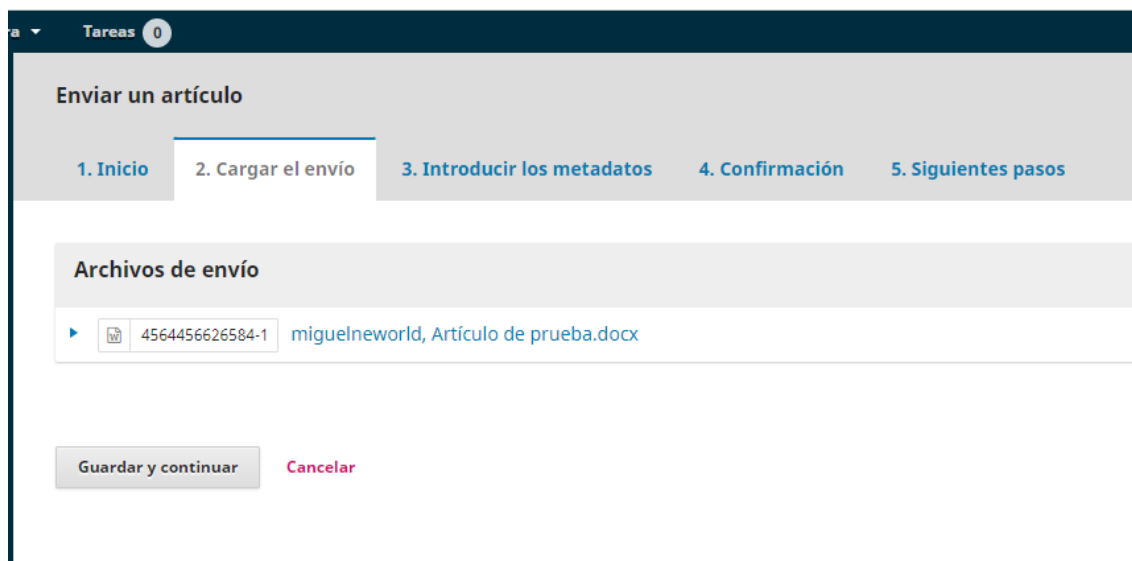

5. Afterwards, you must select the section to which you must send your work (only “investigations and studies” or “reviews” are allowed) and click on the compulsory sections:

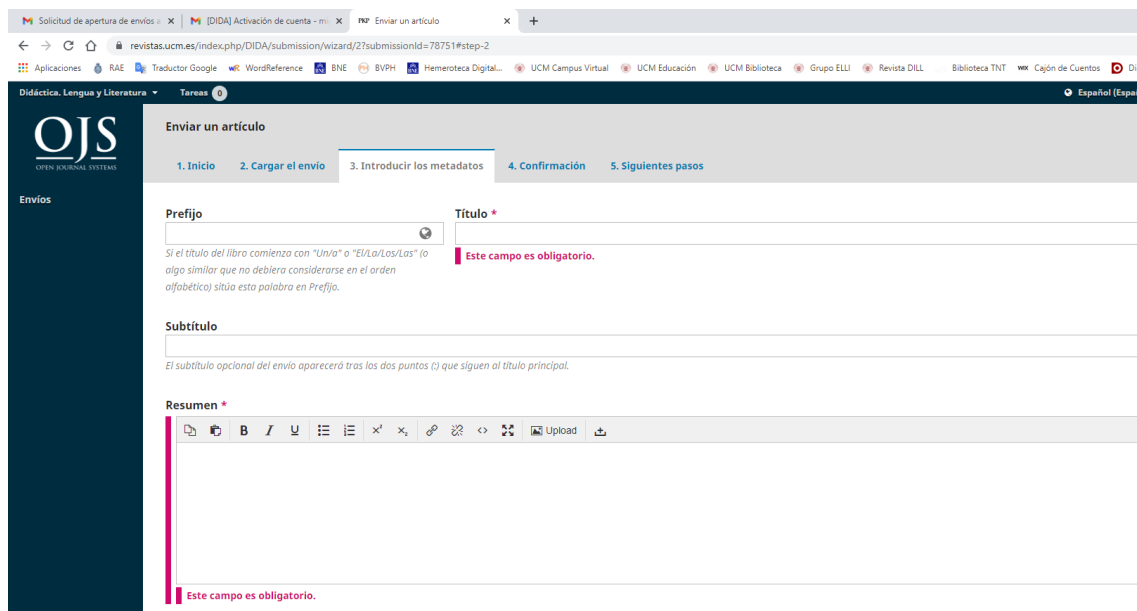

6. It is in the next screen where you can attach your anonymised article (by clicking on “text of the article or review”) and your data sheet (by clicking on “other attached documents”):

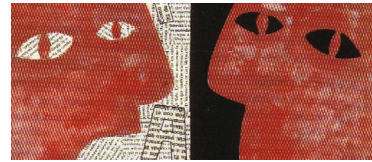

7. When your work is uploaded a screen like this will appear:

8. After having uploaded your anonymised article according to the style guide of the journal you will be able to introduce the following compulsory data: title of the article (in Spanish, English, and French), abstract (Spanish, English, and French), keywords (Spanish, English, and French), data of the rest of authors or collaborators and, finally, the institutions or agencies that may have funded the study.

9. Your article will be ready for submission. Click on “send submission” to finish the process:
